On the left is the first cartoon of our competition. During the next four weeks we will publish cartoons B, C, D, and E and on the sixth week a cartoon without a caption.

All you have to do is place the five cartoons in order of preference —the funniest one first and so on—and write your own caption to the sixth. BASIL BRUSH will help the Editor to select the winners and there's still a chance to start next week, so tell your friends about this unique competition.

Don't forget to keep your copies of TV COMIC so that you can make your entry on the official coupon to be published on week six.

This competition is open only to children up to the age of fifteen resident in the United Kingdom. Age and neatness will be taken into consideration and the Editor's decision is final.
